

Landex

Land Based Colleges
Aspiring To Excellence

Apprenticeship and work-based learning review

A review of the college management and quality processes for apprenticeship and work-based learning provision.

This one/two day review can consider all aspects of apprenticeship and work based learning provision. Themes might typically include:

- The effectiveness of college management and quality processes for apprenticeship and work-based learning provision
- Self-assessment and action planning
- How well learners are supported in college and in the workplace
- Delivering the new standards

To reserve your preferred dates for this activity please contact paulmurphy@landex.org.uk

@Landexnews

Tel:01604 892650

www.landex.org.uk