Aspiring To Excellence

Slavery and Human Trafficking statement

Introduction from the Board

We are committed to improving our practices to combat slavery and human trafficking.

Organisation's structure

Landex – ‘Land Based Colleges Aspiring to Excellence’ is a subscriber organisation with 35-member Colleges and Universities in England and 3 Members in Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland. To qualify for membership the provider must deliver significant volumes of education and training in land based occupational areas.

Our business

Landex was formed in 2006 from its predecessor organisation, Napaeo, which was founded in 1950, and represented the interests of land based Colleges and the industries they served during a period of continuous change and development.

Our policies on slavery and human trafficking

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business and in so far as is possible requiring our suppliers hold a similar ethos.

The Landex guidance on Modern Slavery is to:

- Comply with legislation and regulatory requirements
- Make suppliers and service providers aware that we promote the requirements of the legislation
- Consider modern slavery factors when making procurement decisions
- Develop awareness of modern slavery issues

We will:

- Inform staff of the Company's Modern Slavery Act Policy and request they read and understand the new requirements
- Aim to include modern slavery conditions or criteria in specification and tender documents wherever possible
- Encourage suppliers and contractors to take their own action and understand their obligations to the new requirements.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54 (1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31st August 2018.
