

Building Independence through Learning Support

Overview

Support and challenge in learning are intrinsic to individual development and progress. This training enables learning support practitioners to develop strategies to build learner independence, covering topics such as:

- Exploring concepts of ability and disability
- Strategies to enable learners to fulfil their potential
- Reviewing strategies to build independence
- The importance of continuous review for in learning progress

Duration

1 day or 2 x 3 hours

Target Audience

Teachers, Tutors,
Trainers, Learning
Support Staff

Charges per day (Non-members)

£500 (£750)

