

Leading in a Learning Environment

Overview

This training is specifically designed for those in middle management positions. The training will explore the challenges presented to managers in the FE sector. It will provide participants with evidenced based tools, techniques, strategies to enhance their practice in areas such as:

- A range of leadership theories, applied to practice
- Developing a learning culture
- Building and sustaining high performing teams
- Receiving feedback and having impactful conversations

Duration

1 - 2 days

Target Audience

Middle Managers

Charges per day (Non-members)

£500 (£750)

